Key: D	I'd Still Marry You (c) 1994 Tupelo Kenyon (P) 1994 Arctic Wingsong Publishing BMI	Calico Bluff, AR May 25, 1992
Fill	(1) 1)) Thede Wingsong Luonoming Divil
D Bm G G	Dmaj7 G D Flowers on the table fragrance is everywhere F#m G A I hear the sound of music, as your voice fills up the air A D D/Db Bm Bm/A Cookin' in the kitchen, just singin' to the stove A D You make a house our home
	Remember when it started, many years ago Remember how it felt just right, even though we didn't really know We had a sneakin' suspicion it'd grow stronger through the years Stronger through the laughter, love and tears
A7	It's not the end of anything, but beginning of the new Happy anniversary, happy birthday to you
	What a grand adventure, sharing this journey with you A7 D F#m Em D G And if we started all over again, I'd still marry you	Gm D
	Fill
	Cards are on the table, the future is an open book Pages are turning before our eyes, guess we might as well look And we see our destiny, rollin' down the road You make the road our home
	I wonder where it leads us, and remember everywhere we've been So many new beginnings, starting all over again But anywhere we go, I know, with you I'm ready to start You make my home your heart
	Chorus	