

Key: E
capo: 4

Traveler
(c) 1994 Tupelo Kenyon
(P) 1994 Arctic Wingsong Publishing BMI

Story, WY
~ 1981

C

Intro: Traveler . . . . HUUUU . . . .

C

When you meet a traveler again, are you gonna call him your friend

G Am

Are you gonna see through his eyes, are you gonna take his advice

Am7/G F C

Are you gonna go there yourself, go, so you will know

G C

When you meet a traveler on your way, are you gonna go or will you stay

G Am

Are you gonna hear the words he'll say, maybe it's your lucky day

Am7/G F C

Are you gonna go there yourself, go, be on your way

C G C C7

How I love to hear their far-flung stories

F C Em7

Tales of places I have never been

Am Am7/G F Am7

And I don't know if I could ever . . . find them

Dm F G C G

Or if I could find my way back home again

An' how I'd love to go to where they travel

See the sights they say are there to see

It's really not the case, I don't believe them

But if it's there for them, it's there for me

Chorus

G Am F C G Am D G

Don't stay, don't treat your self that way, Don't wait for that special travelin' day

Am F C

What a shame to throw your chance away

Dm F G F

But a chance is what you take before you learn to live that way

Break (chorus structure) - Live version: repeat refrain above resolving to C

How I love the freedom when we travel

Learning from the travelers on the go

And ya know I appreciate their inspiration

Cause how I love this livin' on the road

C7 F C GC

Chorus (1st half- acepella) Yeah, go . . . go . . . go . . . be on your way