Intro (Verse structure)

G D C9 G G/Gb
A million miles away . . . where I used to stay
Em Am C D
In the wilderness, it's calling me back, calling me back home
G D C9 G G/Gb
Where it's peaceful in the trees, there's freedom on the breeze
Em Am C G
In the wilderness, it's calling me back, calling me back home

C D G G/Gb Em
A million miles away from modern day frustrations
C D G
Where it's peaceful in the mountains and the trees
C D G G/Gb Em
A million miles away from petty complications
Am C D9 G Gsus4 G
Where quiet's best in the wilderness, and freedom's on the breeze

Such a thirsty nation, in the sea of information
But I'm drowning there, wondering where to mellow while I roam
Looking high and looking low for the peaceful river flowin'
To the wilderness, calling me back, calling me back home

C9

Chorus (. . . on the breeze)

Break (verse structure)

Am G
And the motion of the stream is like poetry
Am C D D9
And the wind through the trees feels like freedom . . . on the breeze . . .
