(c) 1994 Tupelo Kenyon

Story, WY
9/10/94

(Intro: G6 Am G6 Am ... Descending chet-style lick ... G6 C Em7 Am7 G)

G6 G6/Gb
If I had the day to choose, exactly what I'd do
Em7 Em7/D
I'd walk along the mountain stream . . . . .thinkin' 'bout you
C Em7
An' thinkin' 'bout HUUUUUU
Am7 D9
An' I'd wonder if you ever think of me too

My feet are in the water, my head's up in the clouds
Floating on a fantasy, but living out loud
Living out loud
An' I wonder if I'll ever do you proud

D Em C G
I'm not exactly grounded, but I'm not entirely free
D Em C G
I'm not exactly ready to go, but this never felt like home to me
Am Am7 C G
So I'm eager for that next step, even though I've come so far
Am Am7 D9 G6 Am
With my seat right here in the saddle, and soul ... soul in the stars

G6 Am G6 Am
Soul in the stars . . . Soul in the stars

(Descending Chet-style lick -same as intro)

I wish I could remember to count my luck stars
There's just so many, reaching so far
Reaching so far
And for all I see, I know there's at least that many more

And when I hear the water, singing in the stream
It sings a song it has to sing, just like me
Just like me
As we float along a song on our way to the sea

Chorus (ending on Em)
Repeat last two lines (End with descending chet-style lick)
