

Key: E

The Road

Alaska Hiway

capo: 2 (E string open)

(c) 1997 Tupe & Janey Kenyon

Sept. 1996

Intro: Riff x 2

D G D
How long has it been, my old friend

G A7sus4 A7
I came in through the back door, just like I did back when

G D G D
Still it feels like home, how've you been

A7 Bm Bm/A G Gsus4 G D
Tell me 'bout your life at home, I'll sing about the road . . . ah, the road

Riff x 1

Bm A Asus4 A
Did you get my postcards from Alaska to Tangeers

Bm Em G Bm
It seems like only yesterday, though it's been years

G Bm A Asus4 A
I thought about you all the time, and wished you were there

Bm Bm/A G A7 Bm Bm/A G Gsus G D
I've been chasing down adventure, when all you need is here . . . right here

Chorus

D9 Asus4 D9 Asus4 D9 Asus4 D9 Asus4
The ro ad, The ro ad

Riff X 2

We were always night and day, your home life and mine
But that's O.K., friends anyway, all this time
I think of all the homes not taken, wondering where this road will lead
While choices turn to what we want, and life brings what we need (What do we need)

Chorus (with stops)

Riff X 1

D G A D
How long has it been
